ABOUT ME

Hey, I'm Ahmed, a passionate web developer with expertise in JavaScript, Next.js, TypeScript, Node.js, Tailwind CSS, and React.js. I'm on a journey to enhance the future of web development. With a deep understanding of creating fully responsive websites using Next.js, I've mastered crafting dynamic frontends and I am currently diving into building powerful and secure backends. My mission is to create fast-performing, cool-looking websites that stand out.
